

kult

Kulturnyheter för studenter

FEBRUARI

Art exhibition

31/1 -22/3 Dance of Visions II, Röda Sten. Vernissage 31/1 12-17 pm. Entry for students at Röda Sten is 20 SEK.

The Guest exhibition Dance of Visions II is produced by the Gothenburg Art Association and the Jordan National Gallery of fine Arts. During 2007 an exhibition was arranged in Amman. Part two of this exchange results in this exhibition at Röda Sten. Fourteen Jordanian artists and four Swedish artists are attending. Curators for the project are Khalid Khreis and Ragnhild Lundén.

On Saturdays we arrange a creative workshop (only in Swedish), -see the exhibition together and then work together in different ways.

1 /2, 3 pm. Lecture in English by Dr. Khaled Khreis, about art from the Middle East

For more information: www.rodasten.se or www.ragnhildlunden.com

Concert

Göteborg Baroque 5-year anniversary, February 3rd and 4th at 7:30 pm, Christinae kyrka, SEK 250, students go for SEK 100

Göteborg Baroque celebrates their fifth anniversary. The most prominent performance is Magnificat by Bach. This act is 30 minutes and after that there will be other Bach performances.

Handicraft exhibition

4/2-2/5, Konstslöjdsalong, The Röhsska Museum, SEK 40, admission free for people under 25 years

Last spring Röhsska the design museum invited artists to their handicraft competition and 520 people showed their interest. Out of them 50 were selected and can now be seen at this exhibition. The museum's ambition with this handicraft project is to give people a new point of view and show them how provocative, creative and personal handicraft can be.

www.designmuseum.se

Art exhibitions

7/2 Vernissagelördag, Konstepidemin

The old epidemic hospital at Linneplatsen is since 1987 housing many of Göteborgs artists. The first saturday in february three exhibitions opens. Elisabet Eriksson is exhibiting embroideries, paintings and drawings, Peter Eskilsson has an installation and performance and the dutch artist Erik Kuiper is also exhibiting. The exhibitions are open until the first of march. Besides from the exhibitions the ceramists Kerstin Sarvimäki and Karin Östberg and the painter and sculptor Michaela Peterson have there studios open to the public.

Exhibition

7/2, 12-17, Exhibitionopening: Bollywood, The Museum of World Culture, now with FREE ENTRANCE

Since Januari the Museum of World Culture has free entrance again! Celebrate it with going to the new exhibition on Bollywood!

What is Bollywood? Why is it so popular? Discover it on the Museum of World Culture!

A fantastic possibility to get to know everything about Bollywood, know more about the big stars and enjoy the songs, the dance, the music, the clothes, the colours. Except the exhibition that wont end until September there will be films, pub evenings and much more. See the whole program and more information at:

www.varldskulturmuseet.se

Concert

12/2, Laibach Storan

The Slovenian industry band Laibach will visit Gothenburg again, this time with a show described as a musical chess game. Their interpretation of Bach's Kunst der Fuge is no regular Laibach concert but 90 minutes of performance art and installation. The concert is dedicated to Bach, Schönberg, Kraftwerk, Capt. Geroge Hope Verney, Fisher and Spaski. It will probably be a "once in a life time experience", so if you don't find industrial music absolutely revolting you should definitely be there.

www.storan.nu

Concert

Anna Ternheim, Konserthuset, February the 15th at 7:30 pm, SEK 295

Swedish artist Anna Ternheim whose concerts have been sold out for a long time will now give an additional concert this spring. Don't miss this extraordinary concert, which will be performed with Gothenburg's Symphonic Orchestra.

Concert

Göteborg Wind Orchestra with Norddeutsche Rundfunk Big Band, Kronhuset, February the 16th at 7 pm, SEK 155

A top-notch international guestplay with Norddeutsche Rundfunk Big Band. One of the members of the band, Jörg Achim, is one of Germany's most famous arrangers and he's been inspired by Duke Ellington and Count Basie among many others. New versions of Louis Armstrong's masterpieces will be performed this evening.

Gay exhibition

18/2-23/8, Frizon, The Maritime Museum and Aquarium, SEK 40, admission free for people under 25 years

In a time when the nuclear family model was the standard, many male homosexuals found their freedom at sea. This exhibition is built on interviews with homo- and heterosexual men and shows us new perspectives on life at sea.

www.sjofartsmuseum.goteborg.se

Music festival

19/2 -20/2, Freefest, Nefertiti. 7.30 pm. First act on stage at 8.30 pm. Entrée for one evening 160 SEK. Price for two days, including Henrik Rylander's new CD: 220 SEK.

New festival for improvised and experimental music at Nefertiti. Among others you can see the duo John Butcher (saxophone) & the percussionist Eddie Prévost from Great Britain.

Tickets can be bought at www.nefertiti.se

Performance

21/2, 19.00, b rör mig, Stora Scenen Pustervik, 150 kr/110 kr

A golden oldie at Pustervik! The dancer and choreographer Gilda Stillbäck is back with the dance performance b rör mig, which is centred on the tango; the intensity, the turbulence, the security. On stage we meet Gilda and the Argentine dancer Aldo Velasquez who links modern dance art to classical tango through water, light, film and upon all, dance.

Book tickets on:

www.pustervik.goteborg.se

Club

26 feb East n bul, Pustervik

Club East'n'Bul takes you on a journey to the clubs and parties of Istanbul. Passionate Turkish songs in punk versions. Hakan Vreskala, with friends, play live on the Barscenen, featuring DJ Deelay. A night of dance, joy and love is to be expected.

Mer information på www.pustervik.se

Concert

28/2 18.30 Hello Saferide + support: John M.E, Trädgår'n, 230kr

Annika Norlin is one of Sweden's best song writers and most loved musicians. When she sings in English she calls herself Hello Saferide. Buy (or however one gets music nowadays) her album "More modern short stories from Hello Saferide" and go and see her at Trädgår'n! Tickets can be bought at ticnet:

<http://www1.ticnet.se/PriceTable?EVNT=GOT13923RTG02281&l=EN>